ST. BRIGID,
you were a woman of peace.
You brought harmony where there was conflict.
You brought light to the darkness.
You brought hope to the downcast.
May the mantle of your peace cover those who are troubled and anxious, and may peace be firmly rooted in our hearts and in our world.
Inspire us to act justly and to reverence all God has made.
St. Brigid,
you were a voice for the wounded and the weary.
Strengthen what is weak within us.
Calm us into a quietness that heals and listens.
May we grow each day into greater wholeness in mind, body and spirit. Amen

WHY IS EASTER ALSO CALLED "PASCHA"?

You might have heard Easter referred to as the "Paschal Mystery." In fact, in some Eastern Rites of the Catholic Church, Easter is referred to as "Pascha." Why is that?

"Pascha" means "Passover"—it is the Aramaic form of Hebrew's Pesach, the feast commemorating Israel's release from bondage in Egypt. Calling Easter "Pascha" brings home the reality of Christ as the Paschal Lamb.

At Passover, God commanded the Israelites to sacrifice a pure lamb and mark their doorposts with its blood. Seeing the lamb's blood, the angel of death would skip their homes as he went throughout Egypt slaying every firstborn male among man and beast.

At Easter, Christ allowed Himself to be crucified and His Blood poured out. His Blood redeems us from eternal death, setting us apart from those who reject Him. It's no coincidence that this event occurred during the Passover feast.

"The connection between the Jewish Passover and the Christian feast of Easter is real and ideal. Real, since Christ died on the first Jewish Easter Day; ideal...because Christ's death and Resurrection had its figures and types in the Old Law, particularly in the paschal lamb, which was eaten towards evening of the 14th of Nisan." The Catholic Encyclopedia

Easter, prefigured by the Passover, becomes a reality. Passover is fulfilled. Christ is the Paschal Lamb. We are the Israelites. His triumph over death releases us from the slavery of sin. We are freed to set out for the Promised Land—for heaven.

Why should you advertise on the bulletin?

- ♦ YOU receive constant exposure, as on a billboard or regular distribution of thousands of business cards.
- ♦ YOU introduce your business to new residents as they register with the church (21% of all family units move every year).
- ♦ YOU know your message is always in the home: this publication is continually referred to for meeting dates and upcoming events.
- ♦ YOU accomplish all of the above very inexpensively (tax deductible, too!)
